STIPULATION AND ~~[PROPOSED]~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER

DISCOVERY MATTER

STIPULATION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER
REGARDING THE DISCLOSURE AND USE OF DISCOVERY MATERIALS

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

1.1 GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

This action is likely to involve trade secrets, development, commercial, financial, technical, private, and/or proprietary information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecution of this action is warranted. Such confidential and proprietary materials and information consist of, among other things, confidential business or financial information, information regarding confidential business practices, or other confidential research, development, or commercial information (including information implicating privacy rights of third parties and/or putative class members), information otherwise generally unavailable to the public, or which may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state or federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Accordingly, to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the conduct of trial, to address their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve the ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this matter. It is the intent of the parties that information will not be designated as confidential for tactical reasons and that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that it has been maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause why it should not be part of the public record of this case.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 “Action” means this case entitled Elijah Myers and Juan Moncada v. Uline, Inc., Case No. 5:16-cv-00664-DSF-KK.

2.2 “Challenging Party” means a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.

2.3 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items means information (regardless of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), and as specified above in the Good Cause Statement.

2.4 “Counsel” means (i) counsel who appear on the pleadings as counsel for a Party and (ii) partners, associates, and staff of such counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation.

2.5 “Designating Party” means a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

2.6 “Disclosure or Discovery Material” means all items or information, regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

2.7 “Expert” means a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this Action.

2.8 “Non-Party” means any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

2.9 “Party” means any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

2.10 “Producing Party” means a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in this Action.

2.11 “Professional Vendors” means persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

2.12 “Protected Material” means any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

2.13 “Receiving Party” means a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. It is meant to protect confidential business or financial information, information regarding confidential

2 business practices, or other confidential research, development, or commercial 3 information (including information implicating privacy rights of third parties), 4 information otherwise generally unavailable to the public, or which may be privileged 5 or otherwise protected from disclosure under state or federal statutes, court rules, case 6 decisions, or common law.

7 More specifically, this Stipulation and Order protects all financial information 8 relating to Defendant Uline, Inc., including but not limited to all documents and 9 information relating to compensation, bonus, and commission structure and plans. In 10 that same regard, this Stipulation and Order specifically protects all information in any 11 "Class List" produced by Uline, Inc., containing private contact information of current 12 and former employees. Such information shall not be used for any purpose other than 13 this litigation.

14 Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by the orders of the trial 15 judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material at trial.

16 a) Nothing in this Protective Order shall prevent or restrict a Producing 17 Party's own disclosure or use of its own Protected Material for any purpose, and 18 nothing in this Order shall preclude any Producing Party from showing its Protected 19 Material to an individual who prepared the Protected Material.

20 b) Nothing in this Order shall be construed to prejudice any Party's right to 21 use any Protected Material in court or in any court filing with the consent of the 22 Producing Party or by order of the Court.

23 c) This Order is without prejudice to the right of any Party to seek further or 24 additional protection of any Discovery Material or to modify this Order in any way, 25 including, without limitation, an order that certain matter not be produced at all.

26 d) The terms of this Protective Order do not apply to the Court and/or court 27 personnel, as they are subject only to the Court's internal procedures regarding the 28 handling of materials filed or lodged, including materials filed or lodged under seal.

2 4. DURATION

3 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations 4 imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees 5 otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be 6 deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this Action, with 7 or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and 8 exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this Action, 9 including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time 10 pursuant to applicable law.

11 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

12 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.
 13 Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this 14 Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies 15 under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection 16 only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that 17 qualify for protection under this Order.

18 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 19 this Order, or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that 20 qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the 21 material is disclosed or produced.

22 a) Available Designations. Any Producing Party may designate 23 Discovery Material with any of the following designations, provided that it meets the 24 requirements for such designations as provided for herein: “CONFIDENTIAL,” or 25 “CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

26 b) Written Discovery and Documents and Tangible Things. Written 27 discovery, documents (which include “electronically stored information,” as that 28 phrase is used in Federal Rule of Procedure 34), and tangible things that meet the

2 requirements for the confidentiality designations listed in Paragraph a) may be so 3 designated by placing the appropriate designation on every page of the written 4 material prior to production. For digital files being produced, the Producing Party 5 may mark each viewable page or image with the appropriate designation, and mark 6 the medium, container, and/or communication in which the digital files were 7 contained. In the event that original documents are produced for inspection, the 8 original documents shall be presumed "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES 9 ONLY" during the inspection and re-designated, as appropriate during the copying 10 process.

11 c) Native Files. Where electronic files and documents are produced 12 in native electronic format, such electronic files and documents shall be designated for 13 protection under this Order by appending to the file names or designators information 14 indicating whether the file contains "CONFIDENTIAL," or "CONFIDENTIAL - 15 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," material, or shall use any other reasonable method for 16 so designating Protected Materials produced in electronic format. When electronic 17 files or documents are printed for use at deposition, in a court proceeding, or for 18 provision in printed form to an expert or consultant pre-approved pursuant to 19 Paragraph 12, the party printing the electronic files or documents shall affix a legend 20 to the printed document corresponding to the designation of the Designating Party and 21 including the production number and designation associated with the native file. No 22 one shall seek to use in this litigation a .tiff, .pdf or other image format version of a 23 document produced in native file format without first (1) providing a copy of the 24 image format version to the Producing Party so that the Producing Party can review 25 the image to ensure that no information has been altered, and (2) obtaining the consent 26 of the Producing Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld if the 27 documents have not been modified or altered.

28 d) Depositions and Testimony. Parties or testifying persons or entities may designate depositions and other testimony with the appropriate designation by

2 indicating on the record at the time the testimony is given or by sending written notice 3 of how portions of the transcript of the testimony is designated within thirty (30) days 4 after being notified by the court reporter that the transcript is available. During this 5 thirty (30) day period, any Party that wishes to disclose the transcript, or information 6 contained therein, may provide written notice of its intent to treat the transcript as 7 non-confidential, after which time, any Party that wants to maintain any portion of the 8 transcript as confidential must designate the confidential portions within fourteen (14) 9 days, or else the transcript may be treated as non-confidential. In the event the Party 10 who wishes to disclose the transcript, or information contained therein, is only seeking 11 to disclose portions of the transcript, that Party shall specifically identify the pages of 12 the transcript it wishes to disclose, and any Party that wants to maintain any of these 13 specifically identified pages of the transcript as confidential must designate these 14 pages as confidential within seventy-two (72) hours, or else the specifically identified 15 pages of the transcript may be treated as non-confidential. Any Protected Material 16 that is used in the taking of a deposition shall remain subject to the provisions of this 17 Protective Order, along with the transcript pages of the deposition testimony dealing 18 with such Protected Material. In such cases, the court reporter shall be informed of 19 this Protective Order and shall be required to operate in a manner consistent with this 20 Protective Order. In the event the deposition is videotaped, the original and all copies 21 of the videotape shall be marked by the video technician to indicate that the contents 22 of the videotape are subject to this Protective Order, substantially along the lines of 23 "This videotape contains confidential testimony used in this case and is not to be 24 viewed or the contents thereof to be displayed or revealed except pursuant to the terms 25 of the operative Protective Order in this matter or pursuant to written stipulation of the 26 parties." Counsel for any Producing Party shall have the right to exclude from oral 27 depositions, other than the deponent, deponent's counsel, the reporter and 28 videographer (if any), any person who is not authorized by this Protective Order to receive or access Protected Material based on the designation of such Protected

2 Material. Such right of exclusion shall be applicable only during periods of 3 examination or testimony regarding such Protected Material.

4 5.3 Discovery Material Designated As “CONFIDENTIAL”

5 a) A Producing Party may designate Discovery Material as 6 “CONFIDENTIAL” if it contains or reflects confidential, proprietary, and/or 7 commercially sensitive information.

8 b) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, Discovery Material 9 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” may be disclosed only to the following:

10 (i) The Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel, such counsel’s 11 immediate paralegals and staff, and any copying or clerical litigation support services 12 working at the direction of such counsel, paralegals, and staff;

13 (ii) The individually named Plaintiffs of the Receiving Party, 14 provided that each such person has agreed to be bound by the provisions of the 15 Protective Order by signing a copy of Exhibit A;

16 (iii) Court reporters, stenographers and videographers retained to 17 record testimony taken in this action;

18 (iv) The Court, jury, and court personnel, subject to appropriate 19 redactions;

20 (v) Graphics, translation, design, and/or trial consulting 21 personnel, having first agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Protective Order by 22 signing a copy of Exhibit A;

23 (vi) Mock jurors who have signed an undertaking or agreement
24 agreeing not to publicly disclose Protected Material and to keep any information 25 concerning Protected Material confidential;

26 (vii) Any mediator who is assigned to hear this matter, and his or 27 her staff, subject to their agreement to maintain confidentiality to the same degree as 28 required by this Protective Order; and

(viii) Any other person with the prior written consent of the Producing Party;

(ix) Any outside expert or consultant retained by the Receiving Party to assist in this action, provided that disclosure is only to the extent reasonably necessary to perform such work; and provided that: (a) such expert or consultant has agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Protective Order by signing a copy of Exhibits A and B; (b) such expert or consultant is not a current officer, director, or employee of a Party or of a competitor of a Party, nor anticipated at the time of retention to become an officer, director, or employee of a Party or of a competitor of a Party; (c) such expert or consultant is not involved in competitive decision-making, as defined by U.S. Steel v. United States, 730 F.2d 1465, 1468 n.3 (Fed. Cir. 1984), on behalf of a Party or a competitor of a Party; (d) such expert or consultant accesses the materials in the United States only, and does not transport them to or access them from any foreign jurisdiction.

5.4 Discovery Material Designated as “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”

a) A Producing Party may designate Discovery Material as “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” if it contains or reflects information that is extremely confidential and/or sensitive in nature, and if the Producing Party reasonably believes that the disclosure of such Discovery Material is likely to cause economic harm or significant competitive disadvantage to the Producing Party. It is Defendant’s position (which Plaintiffs reserve the right to oppose) that the following information, if non-public, shall be presumed to merit the “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” designation: trade secrets, pricing information, financial data, sales information, sales or marketing forecasts or plans, business plans, sales or marketing strategy, product development information, engineering documents, testing documents, personal and non-public employee

2 information, and other non-public information of similar competitive and business 3 sensitivity.

4 b) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, Discovery Material
5 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” may be disclosed 6 only to:

7 (i) The Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel, provided that such 8 Outside Counsel is not involved in competitive decision-making, as defined by U.S.
9 Steel v. United States, 730 F.2d 1465, 1468 n.3 (Fed. Cir. 1984), on behalf of a Party 10 or a competitor of a Party, and such Outside Counsel’s immediate paralegals and staff, 11 and any copying or clerical litigation support services working at the direction of such 12 counsel, paralegals, and staff;

13 (ii) Any outside expert or consultant retained by the Receiving 14 Party to assist in this action, provided that disclosure is only to the extent reasonably 15 necessary to perform such work; and provided that: (a) such expert or consultant has 16 agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Protective Order by signing a copy of 17 Exhibits A and B; (b) such expert or consultant is not a current officer, director, or 18 employee of a Party or of a competitor of a Party, nor anticipated at the time of 19 retention to become an officer, director, or employee of a Party or of a competitor of a 20 Party; (c) such expert or consultant is not involved in competitive decision-making, as 21 defined by U.S. Steel v. United States, 730 F.2d 1465, 1468 n.3 (Fed. Cir. 1984), on 22 behalf of a Party or a competitor of a Party; (d) such expert or consultant accesses the 23 materials in the United States only, and does not transport them to or access them 24 from any foreign jurisdiction; and (e) no unresolved objections to such disclosure 25 exist after proper notice has been given to all Parties as set forth in Paragraph 10, 26 below;

27 (iii) Court reporters, stenographers and videographers retained to 28 record testimony taken in this action, subject to appropriate redactions;

(iv) The Court, jury, and court personnel, subject to appropriate redactions;

(v) Graphics, translation, design, and/or trial consulting personnel, having first agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Protective Order by signing a copy of Exhibit A;

(vi) Any mediator who is assigned to hear this matter, and his or her staff, subject to their agreement to maintain confidentiality to the same degree as required by this Protective Order; and

(vii) Any other person with the prior written consent of the Producing Party.

5.4 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court's Scheduling Order..

6.2 Manner of Making Challenge. Any motion challenging a designation of confidentiality or seeking to modify or amend the Protective Order must be brought in strict compliance with Local Rules 37-1 and 37-2 (including the Joint Stipulation requirement). Furthermore, any challenge to a designation of Protected Material under this Order shall be written, shall be served on outside counsel for the Producing Party, shall particularly identify the documents or information that the Receiving Party contends should be differently designated, and shall state the grounds for the objection. Thereafter, further protection of such material shall be resolved in accordance with the following procedures:

2 (i) The objecting Party shall have the burden of conferring either in 3 person, in writing, or by telephone with the Producing Party claiming protection (as 4 well as any other interested party) in a good faith effort to resolve the dispute. The 5 Producing Party shall have the burden of justifying the disputed designation;

6 (ii) Failing agreement, the Receiving Party may bring a motion to the 7 Court for a ruling that the Protected Material in question is not entitled to the status 8 and protection of the Producing Party's designation. The Parties' entry into this Order 9 shall not preclude or prejudice either Party from arguing for or against any 10 designation, establish any presumption that a particular designation is valid, or alter 11 the burden of proof that would otherwise apply in a dispute over discovery or 12 disclosure of information;

13 (iii) Notwithstanding any challenge to a designation, the Protected 14 Material in question shall continue to be treated as designated under this Order until 15 one of the following occurs: (a) the Party who designated the Protected Material in 16 question withdraws such designation in writing; or (b) the Court rules that the 17 Protected Material in question is not entitled to the designation.

18 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

19 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 20 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this 21 Action only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this Action. Such 22 Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the 23 conditions described in this Order. When the Action has been terminated, a Receiving 24 Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).
25 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location 26 and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized 27 under this Order.
28

2 7.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – 3 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or Items. Unless otherwise 4 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving 5 Party may disclose any information or item designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or 6 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” only to:

7 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as 8 well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably 9 necessary to disclose the information for this Action;

10 (b) the officers, directors, and employees of the Receiving Party to whom 11 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action;

12 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 13 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the 14 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

15 (d) the court and its personnel, subject to the Court’s internal procedures 16 regarding the handling of material filed or lodged, including material filed or lodged 17 under seal;

18 (e) court reporters and their staff, subject to appropriate redactions;

19 (f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional 20 Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have 21 signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), subject to 22 appropriate redactions; (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the 23 information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the 24 information;

25 (h) during their depositions, witnesses, and attorneys for witnesses, in the 26 Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary provided: (1) the deposing party 27 requests that the witness sign the form attached as Exhibit 1 hereto; and (2) they will 28 not be permitted to keep any confidential information unless they sign the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed

2 by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition 3 testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material may be separately 4 bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted 5 under this Stipulated Protective Order; and (i) any mediator or settlement officer, and 6 their supporting personnel, mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in 7 settlement discussions.

8 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED
9 IN OTHER LITIGATION

10 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation 11 that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Action as 12 “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

13 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall 14 include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

15 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 16 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or 17 order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this 18 Stipulated Protective Order; and 19 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 20 the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected. If the Designating 21 Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena or court 22 order shall not produce any information designated in this action as 23 “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or 24 order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The 25 Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that 26 court of its confidential material and nothing in these provisions should be construed 27 as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action to disobey a lawful 28 directive from another court.

2 9. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE 3 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

4 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-5 Party in this Action and designated as "CONFIDENTIAL." Such information 6 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the 7 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be 8 construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

9 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce 10 a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an 11 agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential 12 information, then the Party shall:

13 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party 14 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement 15 with a Non-Party;

16 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated 17 Protective Order in this Action, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 18 specific description of the information requested; and 19 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-20 Party, if requested.

21 (c) If the Non-Party fails to seek a protective order from this court within 22 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party 23 may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery 24 request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not 25 produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 26 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court.
27 Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense 28 of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

2 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

3 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 4 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 5 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in 6 writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts 7 to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or 8 persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, 9 and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and 10 Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE 12 PROTECTED MATERIAL – CLAWBACK AGREEMENT

13 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain 14 inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, 15 the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil 16 Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure 17 may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior 18 privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the 19 parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or 20 information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the 21 parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to 22 the court.

23 Further, pursuant to FRE 502(d) and (e), the Parties agree to and the Court 24 orders protection of privileged and otherwise protected Documents against claims of 25 waiver (including as against third parties and in other federal and state proceedings) as 26 follows:

- 27 (a) The disclosure or production of Documents by a Producing Party subject 28 to a legally recognized claim of privilege, including without limitation the attorney-client privilege and the work-product doctrine, to a

2 Receiving Party, shall in no way constitute the voluntary disclosure of 3 such Document.

4 (b) The inadvertent disclosure or production of any Document in this action 5 shall not result in the waiver of any privilege, evidentiary protection or 6 other protection associated with such Document as to the Receiving Party 7 or any third parties, and shall not result in any waiver, including subject 8 matter waiver, of any kind.

9 (c) If, during the course of this litigation, a party determines that any 10 Document produced by another party is or may reasonably be subject to a 11 legally recognizable privilege or evidentiary protection ("Protected 12 Document"):

13 i. the Receiving Party shall: (A) refrain from reading the Protected 14 Document any more closely than is necessary to ascertain that it is 15 privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure; (B) immediately 16 notify the Producing Party in writing that it has discovered 17 Documents believed to be privileged or protected; (C) specifically 18 identify the Protected Documents by Bates number range or hash 19 value, and, (D) within ten (10) days of discovery by the Receiving 20 Party, return, sequester, or destroy all copies of such Protected 21 Documents, along with any notes, abstracts or compilations of the 22 content thereof. To the extent that a Protected Document has been 23 loaded into a litigation review database under the control of the 24 Receiving Party, the Receiving Party shall have all electronic 25 copies of the Protected Document extracted from the database.
26 Where such Protected Documents cannot be destroyed or 27 separated, they shall not be reviewed, disclosed, or otherwise used 28 by the Receiving Party. Notwithstanding, the Receiving Party is under no obligation to search or review the Producing Party's

2 Documents to identify potentially privileged or work product 3 Protected Documents.

4 ii. If the Producing Party intends to assert a claim of privilege or other 5 protection over Documents identified by the Receiving Party as 6 Protected Documents, the Producing Party will, within ten (10) 7 days of receiving the Receiving Party's written notification 8 described above, inform the Receiving Party of such intention in 9 writing and shall provide the Receiving Party with a log for such 10 Protected Documents that is consistent with the requirements of 11 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, setting forth the basis for the 12 claim of privilege or other protection. In the event that any portion 13 of a Protected Document does not contain privileged or protected 14 information, the Producing Party shall also provide to the 15 Receiving Party a redacted copy of the document that omits the 16 information that the Producing Party believes is subject to a claim 17 of privilege or other protection.

18 (d) If, during the course of this litigation, a party determines it has produced 19 a Protected Document:

20 i. the Producing Party may notify the Receiving Party of such 21 inadvertent production in writing, and demand the return of such 22 documents. Such notice shall be in writing, however, it may be 23 delivered orally on the record at a deposition, promptly followed 24 up in writing. The Producing Party's written notice will identify 25 the Protected Document inadvertently produced by bates number 26 range or hash value, the privilege or protection claimed, and the 27 basis for the assertion of the privilege and shall provide the 28 Receiving Party with a log for such Protected Documents that is consistent with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil

2 Procedure, setting forth the basis for the claim of privilege or other 3 protection. In the event that any portion of the Protected 4 Document does not contain privileged or protected information, 5 the Producing Party shall also provide to the Receiving Party a 6 redacted copy of the Document that omits the information that the 7 Producing Party believes is subject to a claim of privilege or other 8 protection.

9 ii. The Receiving Party must, within ten (10) days of receiving the 10 Producing Party's written notification described above, return, 11 sequester, or destroy the Protected Document and any copies, 12 along with any notes, abstracts or compilations of the content 13 thereof. To the extent that a Protected Document has been loaded 14 into a litigation review database under the control of the Receiving 15 Party, the Receiving Party shall have all electronic copies of the 16 Protected Document extracted from the database.

17 (e) To the extent that the information contained in a Protected Document has 18 already been used in or described in other documents generated or 19 maintained by the Receiving Party prior to the date of receipt of written 20 notice by the Producing Party as set forth in paragraphs 11(c)(ii) and 21 11(d)(i), then the Receiving Party shall sequester such documents until 22 the claim has been resolved. If the Receiving Party disclosed the 23 Protected Document before being notified of its inadvertent production, it 24 must take reasonable steps to retrieve it.

25 (f) The Receiving Party's return, sequestering or destruction of Protected 26 Documents as provided herein will not act as a waiver of the Requesting 27 Party's right to move for the production of the returned, sequestered or 28 destroyed documents on the grounds that the documents are not, in fact,

2 subject to a viable claim of privilege or protection. However, the 3 Receiving Party is prohibited and estopped from arguing that:

- 4 i. the disclosure or production of the Protected Documents acts as a 5 waiver of an applicable privilege or evidentiary protection; 6 ii. the disclosure of the Protected Documents was not inadvertent; 7 iii. the Producing Party did not take reasonable steps to prevent the 8 disclosure of the Protected Documents; or 9 iv. the Producing Party failed to take reasonable or timely steps to 10 rectify the error pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11 26(b)(5)(B), or otherwise.

12 (g) Either party may submit Protected Documents to the Court under seal for 13 a determination of the claim of privilege or other protection. A Party that 14 seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil 15 Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal 16 pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected 17 Material at issue. The Producing Party shall preserve the Protected 18 Documents until such claim is resolved. The Receiving Party may not use 19 the Protected Documents for any purpose absent this Court's order. If a 20 Party's request to file Protected Material under seal is denied by the court, 21 then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record 22 unless otherwise instructed by the court.

23 (h) Upon a determination by the Court that the Protected Documents are 24 protected by the applicable privilege or evidentiary protection, and if the 25 Protected Documents have been sequestered rather than returned or 26 destroyed by the Receiving Party, the Protected Documents shall be 27 returned or destroyed within ten (10) days of the Court's order. The Court 28 may also order the identification by the Receiving Party of Protected Documents by search terms or other means.

(i) Nothing contained herein is intended to, or shall serve to limit a party's right to conduct a review of documents, data (including electronically stored information) and other information, including without limitation, metadata, for relevance, responsiveness and/or the segregation of privileged and/or protected information before such information is produced to another party.

(j) By operation of the Parties' agreement and Court Order, the Parties are specifically afforded the protections of FRE 502 (d) and (e).

12. MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

12.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. If a Party's request to file Protected Material under seal is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the court.

13. FINAL DISPOSITION

After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in paragraph 4, within sixty (60) days of a written request by the Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION).

14. Any violation of this Order may be punished by any and all appropriate measures including, without limitation, contempt proceedings and/or monetary sanctions.

IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

EXHIBIT BProtective Order Acknowledgment and Attorneys Eyes Only Non-Disclosure Agreement

The undersigned hereby acknowledges and agrees to the following:

I have had the opportunity to review the protective order in Elijah Myers and Juan Moncada v. Uline, Inc., Case No. 5:16-cv-00664-DSF-KK, currently pending in the United States District Court for the Central District of California. I certify that I am an appropriate person for receipt of Confidential Attorneys Eyes Only material under the protective order. I understand and agree to be bound by the terms of the protective order and will not disclose any of the Confidential Attorneys Eyes Only material provided to me to any third person, except as allowed in the protective order. I understand and agree that my use of any Confidential Attorneys Eyes Only material shall be solely and exclusively for purposes relating to the prosecution or defense of the above-titled litigation, including but not limited to appeals and writs relating thereto, discovery, and/or mediation or settlement of this action in accordance with the provisions of the protective order.

I also agree that upon being informed of the termination or settlement of this action, I will promptly surrender all Confidential Attorneys Eyes Only material provided to me to the counsel that provided it to me so that it may be returned to the party that it belongs to in accordance with the terms of the protective order. I will not retain copies of any such Confidential Attorneys Eyes Only material in any form of any kind, including but not limited to electronic format, for any reason whatsoever and understand that it would be a violation of the terms of the protective order to do so.

By signing this Non-Disclosure Agreement, I hereby consent to the jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California for purposes of enforcing the terms of this agreement.
